CREGEEN'S PUB RULES

1. Have fun...or you may be asked to leave
2. This is a pub, not a restaurant, so actively participate in the process of "eat, drink, and be merry"
3. If you want the best seat in the house, then find it
4. Two pints last longer than one. When the house is full, plan ahead
5. Conversation is intelligent, and NEVER personal
6. People sitting in groups need not be acquainted..learn from our friends across the pond
7. The bartenders are the moderators & final adjudicators; your only avenue of appeal
8. You can smoke outside, but make sure your butt ends up in the can
9. Our house, our remote. Ask nicely, maybe we'll change the channel
10. If you can't think of any better thing to do with your mouth than swear, stick a beer in it
11. When we're at your house, we'll play by your rules, but here we play by Cregeen's House Rules.

Cregeen's Irish Pub

Tracing its history back to Roman occupation, pubs (or public houses), were British establishments licensed to serve alcohol. Food or "pub grub" did not become popular until the late 20th century. Cregeen's serves many of these dishes with a slant toward the American palate. In Ireland, a pub is often a focal point of the community where folks go to enjoy "Craic". (pronounced crack, the Gaelic word for communal fun)

Written on calfskin, near 800 A.D. by monks, it still survives today in the archives of Trinity College in Dublin.
